PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

Dear Fellow Collectors;

With snow all around as I write this it seems as if winter will hang on forever. Forty years of experience tells me as well as the calendar tells me Spring is just around the corner.

I'm looking forward to the re-opening of the outdoor flea markets and the weekend garage sales. Last year I purchased a Morgan Silver Dollar and two 90% silver Kennedy halves with a few other coins mounted in a homemade wood frame for $3. or $4. at a house sale. Get out when you can even if you have to make time. Stretch your legs, refresh your outlook and blow off the winter smell.

I'd like to hear about your finds and recent purchases and see them at our June meeting in Cherry Hill at the GSNA Convention.

Until then keep smiling and happy hunting (for exonumia of course).

Best regards,

Pete Hogaboom

EDITORS NOTES

It has finally happened! I have nothing for the next issue of Jerseyana so your quick help is needed. The deadline for the next issue will be April 10, so please help and send an article for this issue. You can be sure it will be published promptly. If not, be prepared to get several pages of New Jersey paper money and post cards. As you know we try to concentrate on New Jersey Exonumia but if you wish to write about other collecting interests we will be happy to have it. Thanks.

DUES PAYMENTS

I still haven't received 1988 dues payments from some members. Even though the postage charges are going up this year we have kept our dues at $6.00 which is a bargain for six issues of JERSEYANA. If there is a X in this box you must pay your dues or this will be the last issue of Jerseyana you will receive.

MISSING COPY OF JERSEYANA?

I have reports from several members that they didn't receive the November-December 1987, issue # 44 of JERSEYANA. This issue had a Christmas postcard from the Old Soldiers Home of Kearny on the cover. I mailed this issue on December 26, 1987 so you should have received it before New Years. If you didn't get your copy please write me and I will send you one. I only have a few copies left and if more are needed I will have it reprinted so it may take a week or two. Please advise me before March 20th or I can't guarantee you will get a copy.

D.BOTTINI MAVERICK TOKENS

by Herbert Weiss

In January 1987 a member sent me a classified ad for a Hoboken house sale and two tokens he purchased there. No tokens or coins are mentioned in the ad but he is a collector of many things so he attended the sale. Because he did, we all got lucky and two more mavericks are identified.

I wrote to the address asking many questions and several weeks later my S A S E. was returned by the niece of the house sales owner who died in 1986. All she knew was D.Bottini was DOMINICK BOTTINI and at one time he owned a bar on Willow Avenue in Hoboken. The years of operation and when Dominick Bottini died were unknown to her.

The Hoboken Public Library was my next stop and this is what I learned.

Dominick Bottini is first listed in the 1895-96 City Directory as running a saloon at 118 Willow Avenue. He is also listed thru the 1901 directory but nothing after until 1909 in the Parkers City Directory he is listed as retired at the same address. In the 1918 directory he is listed at 217 10th Street-retired. From this brief listing it appears the tokens were used sometime between 1895-1901, as the tokens are brass, uniface, and incuse this appears correct. If you have any D.B. or Bottini tokens please let me know.

HOBOKEN - Estate Sale. Selling contents of home of old Hoboken family. Furn: Victorian to Deco, baby grand piano, linens, glassw, bric-a-brac, tools, file cabinets, clothing, furs. Fri + Sat, Jan 2 & 3, 10am. 927 Castle Point Terr (off 9th St).

While at the Hoboken Library I also researched some other Hoboken tokens and this information will be reported in future JERSEYANA's. I could not find any information on the Simerson tokens of West Hoboken, this company issued at least six different tokens in quantity and no where is there a known record of who or what they were.

The Hoboken Library was quite a disappointment to me. The librarian was courteous but for an old commercial town the research room was lacking, very few City Directories after 1930 and the earlier ones they had were falling apart on the shelves. I was advised to use the Jersey City Library for any other research on Hoboken. How sad!

THE LOEHMANN'S GIFT COINS

by Al Zaika

Loehmann's is a chain of womans clothing stores, with branches in East Brunswick, Florham Park, Paramus, and Pennsauken, N.J.

In early 1987 I learned that a $25.00 and $50.00 gift coin could be purchased at the Loemann stores. I then acquired one of the $25. coins and displayed it at the N.J.E.S. Ocean County Coin Club Show meeting at Toms River and also made mention of the $50. coin. Since then a $100.00 gift coin has become available.

The obverses of the coins are illustrated in the Loehmann advertisement and thr reverses are as follows; $25, $50, or $100. Redeemable in $25, $50. or $100./At/Loehmann's/serial numbers, incused.

The coins are fabricated of brass, are oblong and measure 63X33 mm. My efforts to learn the name of the die sinker have not been successful so far.

Editors note.

at these prices I wonder if Loehmann's really cares if all these coins are redeemed.

THE HIGH PRICE OF TOKENS.

Last fall dealer member Gary Pipher ran a mail bid sale with a really nice New Jersey brewery token in it. Gary had a minimum bid on the token of $46.00 (set by the consignor). I had never seen the token or ever heard of it so I entered what I thought was a substantial bid. Well, I didn't get it. The high bid was $225.00 reduced to $165. slightly higher than the second bid of $150. I hope it turns out to be a hoard item and the rest of them turn up soon at a greatly reduced price (fat chance). Its a great token and I would love to own one. Gary has rubbings, I hope they show up properly. The token is from Hinchcliff Bros. of Paterson, N.J. in white metal.

Gary runs several token and medal auctions a year. If you aren't on his mailing list his address is; P.O.Box 217, Johnson City New York, 13790. He also accepts consignments if you are interested. Write first.

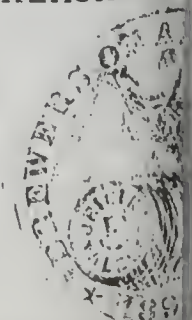

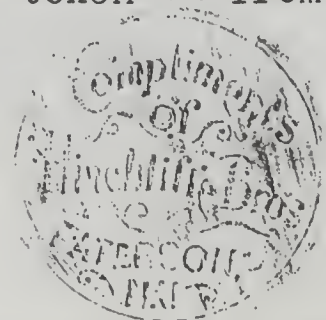

Looking for the perfect gift

Loehmann's Gift Coins

At $25, $50 and $100 they are the perfect way to give a woman Designer Fashions at prices that can't be beat. In fact, Loehmann's guarantees it...even

REPLY CARD

WHAT A BARGAIN!

Several of my collecting interests are newspaper tokens, real estate tokens, and N.J. postcards. I recently purchased this government business reply card put out by the Newark Ledger. It fits into all three categories.

I am picturing it here for two reasons. Many of our members live in Ocean County and I thought they might like to see what property sold for in November 1926 the card was mailed to a Montclair resident on November 26, 1926. I wonder what you can buy in this neighborhood for $58.60 today.

The Newark Ledger issued a trade token and an encased cent but no real estate token for this development. Too bad.

The second reason for showing this postcard is because I didn't have any thing in exonumia to show.

I need your help, write me some articles so I exclude the post cards.

The above is another example of advertising notes issued by merchants in the late 19th Century.

The color is a light green and the engraving detail is excellent, the paper quality is good. With many non English reading European immigrants coming to the U.S. in the 1890-1920 years many of these notes were accepted as real money with the receiver getting a rude shock when he tried to spend it.

The obverse has the phrase, "Don't look on the other side" I looked and couldn't understand this. Do you? - 396 -

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

I am looking forward to the New Jersey Token & Medal show which will be held in conjunction with the Garden State Numismatic Association Convention at the Hyatt in Cherry Hill. The G.S.N.A will run June 24, 25, and 26, and the N.J. Token show will be June 25 and 26. Free admission for both.

Our meeting of The New Jersey Exonumia Society will be on Saturday June 25 in a meeting room to be announced.

Howard Ianza has kindly consented to give his talk on Civil War emergency money. I attended this presentation of his about 2 years ago and can say it's one of the best talks I've ever attended.

Al Zaika called me and said he may line up someone (I've forgotten who he said) to give a short talk after Howard on "charge coins".

Please don't miss it, we will have a grand little meeting, bring a friend or spouse.

Please also keep in mind we are desperate for articles, long or short, New Jersey or ?, exonumia or Americana. Please send it to Herb Weiss.

See you all in June.

Regards

Pete

CHARGE COIN COLLECTORS

Al Zaika has suggested (since so many charge coin collectors live in the Philadelphia area,) that the collectors of charge coins hold a small informal meeting after our regular meeting. If this interests you, and you would like to attend, send me a note and I will report any interest in this idea. Please let me know before May 29, 1988.
Editor

NEXT DEADLINE

The deadline for our May-June issue is May 29, 1988. I will mail this issue on June 7, 1988 even if there are blank pages. I have to get back on schedule with JERSEYANA and with the meeting on June 25, members will have 2 weeks to respond to anything in this issue. Send your free classified ads in now.

LAST ISSUE

In the January-February issue, the token picture in the Dominick Bottini story did not come out clearly. Here are details.

The large token reads; "5¢/D.B." reverse blank

The smaller token reads; "D.BOTTINI/GOOD FOR/5/CENT/DRINK" rev.blank
Both tokens are incuse.

I am using a new printer and his process requires lighter original pictures. This problem will be corrected.

Atlantic City

$5 SLOT TOKENS

BY ARCHIE A. BLACK

What's nice about collecting Atlantic City material, generally speaking, is that there are only twelve casinos presently operating to collect chips and tokens from. The $5 slot tokens have only been put into play during the past 12 months even though one of them, Golden Nugget, has the earliest date.

As of this writing, there are no "obsolete" $5 gaming tokens in the true sense, in that an issue has been withdrawn or replaced with another issue. All of the $5 tokens illustrated on this and the next page are all currently in use.

In determining in my own mind what side of these Atlantic City tokens to designate as the obverse and which side I should call the reverse, I've tried to come up with a common denominator to all tokens. In some cases it was to be a difficult call. In one case, Golden Nugget, it was all but impossible to follow my own guidelines, which are as follows:

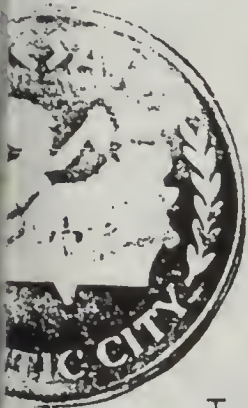

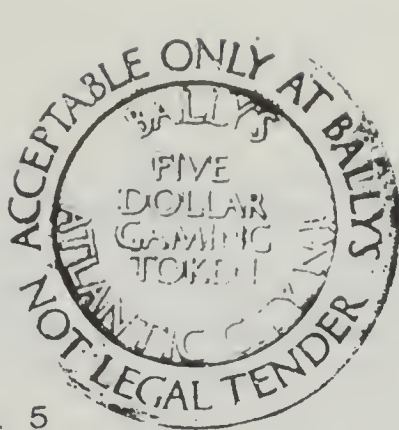

OBVERSE: 1. Building illustrated
2. Casino Logo
3. Date

REVERSE: 1. Large denomination "5"

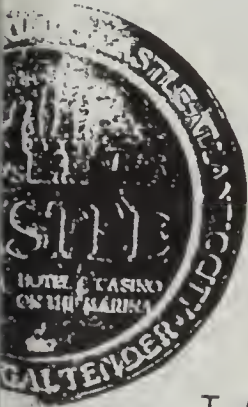

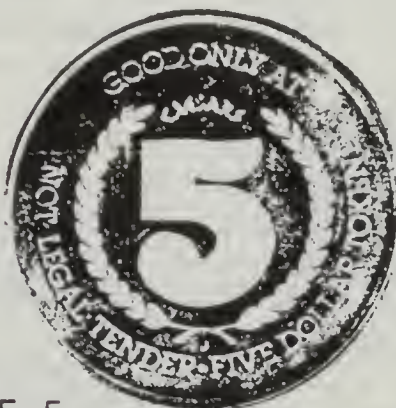

As with other things in this world there are always exceptions..... as you will see with the examples cited. The illustrations on the left I've designated as obverses. Similarly, the illustrations on the right are the reverses. For the record, the first $5 token to appear in Atlantic City was issued by Harrah's Marina, the last, or most recent, was issued by Golden Nugget.....even though the G.N. issue bears the date 1986. The Golden Nugget $5 token was not put into play until the first week of

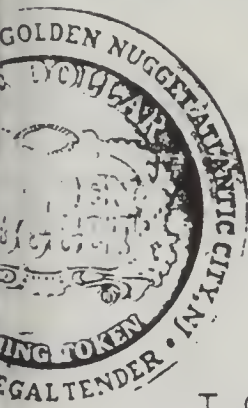

T BAL 5

T CAE 5

T CAS 5

T GOL 5

T HAR 5

T RES 5

T SAN 5

T SHO 5

T TRO 5

T TRU 5

February, 1988!!

To make matters more confusing the casino that initially introduced the token was not the Golden Nugget when the token was put into play.....it was Bally's Grand! I don't like to predict future values or scarcity but this token has the potential to be a "sleeper" IF it is quickly withdrawn when the Bally's Grand $5 token is introduced. You will notice that this token does not fit the criteria laid out when selecting obverse vs. reverse guidelines. The design on this token is on the "reverse"

It is also worth noting here that of the ten tokens illustrated Bally's, Golden Nugget, and Showboat tokens are struck in bronze material while all of the other $5 tokens are nickel.

There are only two Atlantic City casinos that have not yet introduced a $5 token into play to date. They are; Atlantis, and Claridge. If you do not count Bally's Grand then there are three casinos that have not issued THEIR OWN $5 token yet.

You might be interested to know that there are 18,620 slot machines to accept your wagers at Atlantic City's twelve casinos. I would estimate that less than eighty machines are of the .25 cent denomination. By far, the most popular machine is the .25 cent. All this will change by year's end when the world's largest casino, the Taj Mahal, opens its doors. It is a 120,000 square foot casino.....double the size of Atlantic City's largest casino presently in operation. You can bet that I'll be on hand for the gala celebration Mr. Trump has planned for the public.

THE MANSION HOUSE of LONG BRANCH

by Herbert Weiss

The coin shortage of the Civil War led to the issuing of various types of replacement money.

Civil War tokens were the necessity coins issued by many merchants to alleviate the small change shortage. New York City alone had over 85 merchants who issued tokens but the whole State of New Jersey had only 9 token issuing merchants.

In 1846, Jacob Morris opened the Morris House hotel on Ocean Avenue and Laird Street, this is across from where the Ocean Pier is today. The original building is the center section in the picture.

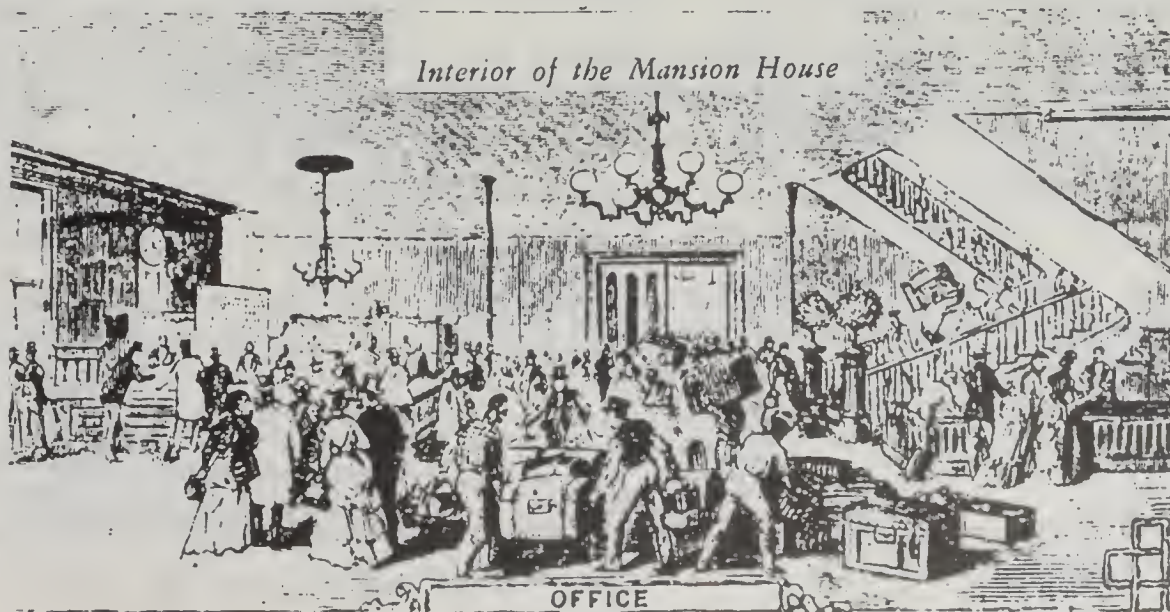

Samuel Laird purchased the hotel in 1853, changed the name to Mansion House and added the two wings to the original building.

The Mansion House was widely known as the place to go for vacation. The August 1, 1863 edition of "Leslies Illustrated" newspaper has a large woodcut picture of the hotel with a descriptive story of its many virtues.

Many famous people stopped at the Mansion House. Mrs. Abraham Lincoln was there for ten days in August 1861, just before the start of the war. President U.S. Grant was a guest in 1869.

The Mansion House stayed popular thru the 1870's with an average room rate of $4.00, a goodly sum for the time. With many people going to the shore for vacation, new and more modern hotels replaced the Mansion House as the place to go. I do not know how and when the end came for the Mansion House.

MANSION HOUSE

Samuel Laird never issued a civil war token but he did issue three scrip notes.

George W. Wait in his "New Jersey's Money" book lists a 10¢, 15¢, and 25¢ note as all being the same except for the denomination. They are all R-7, 1-5 known. No dates are given but my 15¢ note is dated 1862. To the best of my knowledge, no signed notes are known. The note is printed with black ink with the large 15 over-printed in red.

Wykoop, Hallenbeck & Thomas, Printers, 113 Fulton St., N. Y.

My thanks to the Long Branch Public Library for their assistance in researching this article.

MISSING ISSUE #44

Everyone who reported not receiving their copy of issue #44, November/December 1987, has now been sent a replacement copy. I mail all JERSEYANA'S at the Cranford, N.J. post office, either inside or at a box in front of the post office. For some reason over 30 copies were not received by members. I still have some extra copies, if you need one please write.

This issue had a Christmas postcard on the cover and a story & list of tokens issued by Palace Amusements, Asbury Park, N.J. by George Joynson. Copies are limited so first come, first served.

KENTS RESTAURANTS

by Herbert Weiss

Kents Restaurants would be observing their 85th Anniversary this year, unfortunately, they are no more.

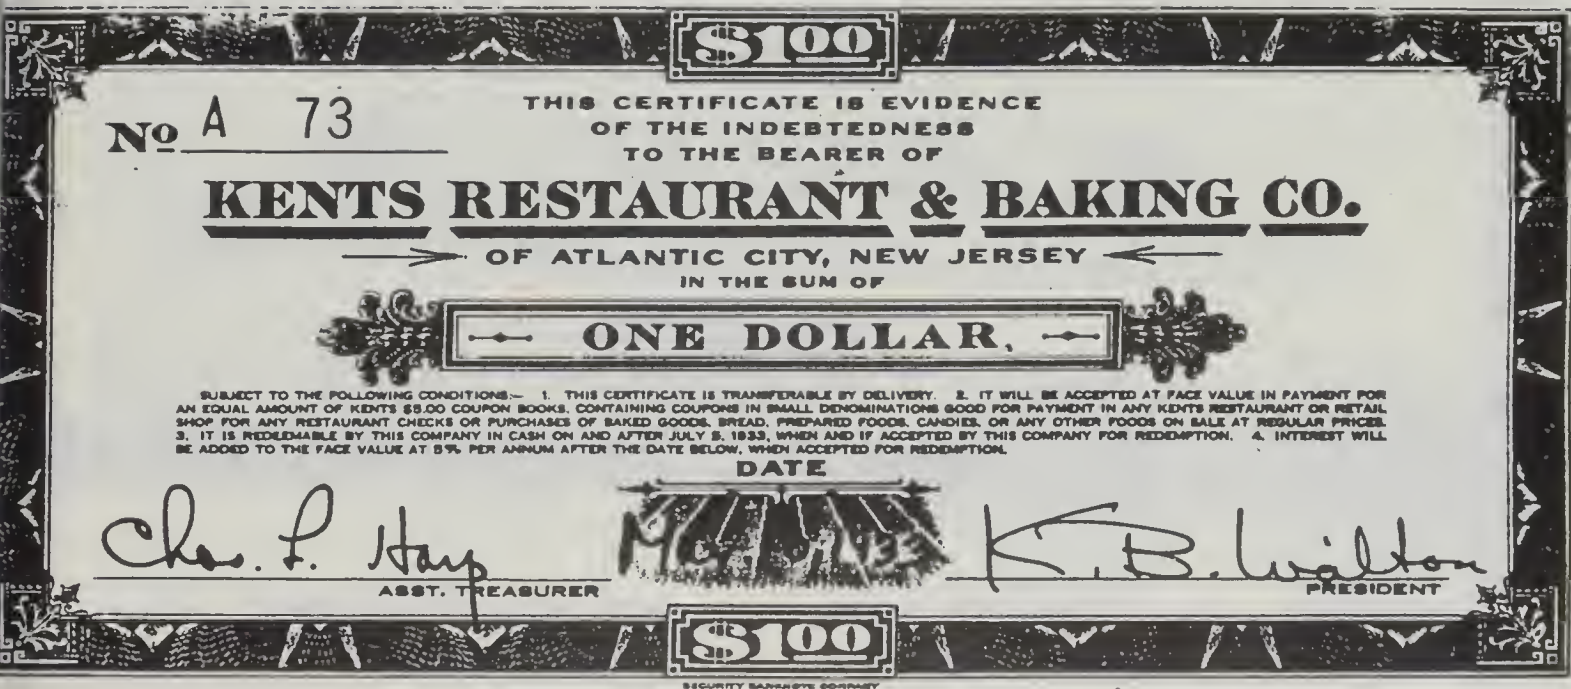

Captain Starn's, Hackney's, Kents, all the other great ethnic eating places, all gone. In my opinion these were Atlantic City's greatest losses, they were institutions which can never be replaced, even with all the big bucks being pumped into Atlantic City today.

Kents got its start in 1903 when the original owner, Morris Walton, opened a small dairy restaurant at 1208 Atlantic Avenue between North and South Carolina Avenues. Two years later the business moved to 1214 Atlantic Avenue, the location of the Kents Uptown restaurant. In 1910 Waltons brother, Albert, took over management of the business which was known as "Walton Brothers Hygenic Cafe." In 1927 after extensive renovations the name was changed to "Walton Brothers Restaurant".

In 1927 a second restaurant was opened at 2124-28 Atlantic Avenue, the downtown location, it was called the "Jersey Restaurant".

In 1928 the two were merged into one firm, Kents Restaurant and Baking Company.

During the depression, the "Wheeler Dining Room" was acquired and redecorated into the midtown restaurant.

$1.00 issued note

With the bank closings of 1933, in order to stay open for business, Kents issued $1.00 and $5.00 depression scrip.

$5.00 specimen note (sample) souvenir note issued in 1940, see notation below date

In 1940 Kents apparently overprinted either redeemed or original unissued scrip as souvenirs, with its history on the normally blank reverse.

On the front of the depression scrip is mentioned $5.00 coupon books in small denomination coupons. I have never seen these and would like to hear from anyone who might have them.

A SOUVENIR OF THE DARK NINETEEN THIRTIES

WITH

Greetings and Best Wishes

not only for 1940, but for a whole decade of
HAPPINESS AND PROSPERITY IN THE FORTIES

This Kents Scrip certificate is a specimen of those used as emergency money at the climax of deflation when all the banks were closed in 1933. We hope that this relic of such times will serve as a contrast to make the years ahead shine brighter.

A Short History of Kents Scrip

The worst disaster in the entire history of Atlantic City occurred in the first few months of 1933 when one after another of our banks was forced to close before and with the collapse of all the nation's banks in March, 1933. When the nation's banks were again opened on March 6, 1933, only one bank in Atlantic City could open its doors. Its deposits then were only about $3 millions and these were all that remained out of the $67 millions of bank deposits which Atlantic City had in 1929.

This disastrous deflation will never be forgotten by those who suffered and lived through those days. Emergency measures were taken to help carry on. The City of Atlantic City had already commenced to issue Atlantic City scrip to pay their employees and supply firms. Atlantic County, Ventnor City, Pleasantville, and other nearby cities also issued scrip.

In these circumstances Kents Restaurants hurriedly prepared and issued Kents Scrip, the first being put into circulation on March 28, 1933, in much the same way as Atlantic City scrip. During the next three months several thousand dollars in Kents Scrip circulated here. Being readily acceptable at Kents Restaurants for purchases of food, a necessity for all, it had wide circulation.

Reminiscent of the uncertainty of those dark days is the flexible pledge of Condition 3, printed on the face of Kents Scrip, in respect to redeemability in cash. However, Kents Restaurants redeemed on July 5, 1933, and thereafter all Kents Scrip except a small amount probably kept as souvenirs.

When the crisis passed, museums and collectors hastened to get specimens of these emergency monies. The Smithsonian Institute in Washington, where they were put in the great National Collection of Monies of the World; the Chase National Bank of New York in their famous collection; and numerous collectors in this country and abroad all have certificates like the one we are presenting to you.

To prevent counterfeiting Kents Scrip is lithographed on a special bond paper into the innermost fibers of which are woven certain colored discs which may be seen only when it is held up to the light. As you look toward the light and see these hidden discs, we hope that you may look forward to the Forties and that your hidden future, as it is revealed in the years to come, will contain happiness and prosperity which are likewise NOT counterfeit, but REAL and LASTING. We also hope that we may add to your health and happiness during these years.

he only token I know of from Kents is a brass spinner token that reads "FOR GOOD FOOD/ KENTS/ RESTAURANTS/ FOUNDED IN 1903/ IN ATLANTIC CITY". The reverse is a standard "Round and Round/You Pay" die. While the token is not signed it was made by Whitehead & Hoag. Several years ago a small hoard of these tokens turned up at a flea market. They are not scarce.

I have six different postcards from Kents, They are one chrome showing all three restaurants, three horizontal linens of the downtown restaurant, one linen night view of the midtown restaurant and one vertical linen of the uptown restaurant. I would be interested in hearing of any postcards from the "Walton Brothers", "Jersey Restaurant", or "Wheeler Dining Room".

My thanks to Marie Boyd of the Atlantic City Free Public Library for her assistance.

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

I believe we had our best meeting to date Saturday, June 25, at the Cherry Hill, N.J. Hyatt. The advance notice of Howard Lanza's talk gave us standing room only. I counted 42 heads when Howard started his program.

The Society would like to thank G.S.N.A for providing the meeting room, Dennis Tilghman for co-ordinating the projector, screen and etc. for Howard. We'll save the most thanks for Howard Lanza and his terrific presentation on U.S. Civil War Emergency money. Sylvan Richter followed Howard with a short talk on Charge Coins, thanks also to Sylvan.

After the presentations tickets were drawn for door prizes, first prize was a 1986 American Eagle Dollar, won by George Scic. In the absence of Secretary Herb Weiss, George also kept minutes of the meeting, Thanks also to you George.

We collected $66. for our 50-50 drawing and the winner was Rodger Hershey of Pittsburgh who mailed his ticket.

Herb Weiss was the winner of our Annual Literary Award for his splendid article on "Morro Castle Collectables". Herb certainly has contributed a lot of articles for Jerseyana. How about our members out there helping with a few lines about your favorite or not so favorite token or medal or?. Jersey material is fine but we'll take anything under the sun in the exonumia/americana area. We do need your help and thanks to all who have written articles in the past.

I would like to start a "Letters to the Editor" column in Jerseyana. If you have anything to say about or ad to current Jerseyana articles anything about the Society, pro or con, or anything about Exonumia/Americana in general please write a letter to our editor.

I'll close with a Thanks to all who came to our meeting, your participation was greatly appreciated, and to our memebers who couldn't attend this year, we hope to see you at our November meeting in Toms River or at the latest at Cherry Hill next June.

Best Regards

Pete Hogaboom

Editors Notes

Pete has suggested a "Letter to the Editor" column", this is a fine way to get member participation in Jerseyana. If you have something to say, drop me a note, if you don't want want your name used, mention this and I will run your letter unsigned. If you wish to critisize the Editor, Jerseyana or any other officer send your letter unsigned, we want to know what you think. The only thing I don't want to hear about is my terrible typeing, this issue seems to be worse than usual. I stillwould like to run a maverick column, but I get no contributions. If you have any, please send me a description. Articles are still needed and help is available. Finally, my thanks for the "Literary Award", I hope you enjoy what I write about.

THE OCEAN GROVE TOKEN STORY

by George Joynson

The Ocean Grove Merry-Go-Round opened for business in 1911. Owned by the Camp Meeting Association, it was located at 14 Lake Avenue, Ocean Grove, N.J. along with a shooting gallery, a penny arcade later converted to archery, a movie theater, eight bowling alleys attended by live pin-setters and a swimming pool. Later in 1945, six skee-ball alleys were added.

Near the Merry-Go-Round were a few rows of rocking chairs which attracted many people. It was a popular social gathering place, made even more comfortable by the swift turning motion of the carousel which acted like a huge fan. Howard Bradley, concessionaire until 1944 enjoyed running the carousel, keeping the place cool on very hot summer days.

The hurricane of 1944 took out the Homestead Restaurant on the Ocean Grove boardwalk and washed away parts of the North Pavilion which housed L.M. Sternbergh's Skee-Ball Alley concession. After the September storm, Mr. Sternbergh moved what he could salvage to the carousel building. During the following summer of 1945, Mr. Bradley turned the lease over to Mr. Sternbergh and he began to operate both the Merry-Go-Round and the Skee-Ball Alley concessions thereafter until he died or until the carousel fell into disrepair.

When the main gear on the Merry-Go-Round broke down, leasing interests were needed. Rather than do extensive repair work, the Camp Meeting Association decided to sell it much to the dismay of the Grove residents. It was sold for parts, disassembled and relocated to either Point Pleasant, Seaside Heights, or possibly somewhere in Canada sometime during the late 1940's to early 1950's. The Ocean Grove Merry-Go-Round was gone and it was sorely missed.

the reverse of the token reads as follows.

DON'T FORGET CHECK
THIS
PLACED WITH OTHER COINS WILL SERVE AS A REMINDER FOR SOMETHING REQUIRING
THINK OF WHAT THIS MEANS

The token must be attributed to Mr. Sternbergh, being made sometime after 1945, since he was the only consessionaire to operate both the Merry-Go-Round and Skee-Ball Alleys and it would have been impossible to have an aluminum token made during WW2.

Of all the people with fond memories of the carousel, its brass rings, and the other alleys, no one remembered the half-dollar sized aluminum token, leading to the belief that only a small quantity of this rare token was ever circulated by Mr. Sternbergh during the late 1940's.

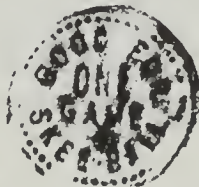

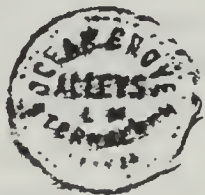

Another unusual fact about this token is its specific diameter of 31mm. The U.S. half dollar is also 31mm. In 1944 Congress passed a law making it illegal to manufacture any tokens identical in size to any U.S. coin, which complicates the picture regarding the actual date this token was made. (Editors note: the editor has two of these tokens and the diameter is 32.5mm on both, it is possible the diameter was changed to conform to this new law.)

As for the wording on the reverse, there still does not exist a complete explanation. In those days, "check" and "coin" probably refers to token, but what actually "required attention" remains a mystery for now.

Mr. Sternbergh also issued another token strictly for his Skee-Ball Alleys. If the rubbing isn't clear it reads.

obv. Ocean Grove/Alleys/L.M./Sternbergh/Lessee.

rev. Good for/one/game/Skee ball.
(nickel-31mm)

Obviously many questions remain unanswered including; Who made the carousel? Where? When? How many animals? What kinds? What year did the gear break? When was it sold? To who? When did Mr. Sternbergh lease the Skee Ball alleys? Which years did he lease the carousel after 1945? When did he die? How many tokens were made? Who made them? Where? Any other varieties? When and how were they used? What is the wording on the reverse?

Many thanks to the following for their recollections.

CASINO ISSUES $25 SILVER SLOT TOKEN

by Archie A. Black

A one and a half ounce silver gaming token has been introduced for big slot play (and pay) at Trump's Castle.

In what might be the new wave of high roller action in Atlantic City's casinos-by-the-sea, the castle of Trump has beat the competition to the punch by issuing this attractive, mirror-finished, proof-like, $25 silver gaming token. A jackpot of $25,000 is the top prize this high stakes machine pays out (with a maximum insertion of three tokens per pull)! Yes, that's right. A $75 slot wager per pull of the handle! Of course all of you "lower stakes" slot players may play a single ($25) token at a time per pull if you wish, but the payout won't be a great should you be lucky enough to line up all three sevens on the reels in the slot machine window. A far cry from the little old ladies playing their nickels and quarters they received as part of their bus package, it will be interesting to see if this new introduction at Trump's Castle will spread to the rest of Atlantic City's growing casino industry. You can bet that if it is profitable for Mr. Trump, the rest will follow Donald's aggressive lead. At least these new silver tokens have intrinsic value. It's a reminder of the good old days when Morgan silver dollars were commonly used in Nevada slots. Who knows, if silver goes back up to $50 per ounce, as it did in 1980, we can all double our money without the risk of playing the "one armed bandits". I suggest that you stock up now before they are all withdrawn from play.

A new group of Gaming Chip collectors has recently organized, not just for Atlantic City chips, but from all over the world, If you are interested write to: Archie Black, P.O.Box 63, Brick, N.J. 08723

Another example of an advertising note overprinted on a German 100000 Mark paper notgeld. The note was dated 1923 so the overprint was added after this. German paper notgeld was worthless from the time the Germans printed it, so the Dewitt Theatre had a cheap advertising giveaway.

With all our recent interest in Charge Coins, I am picturing here the obverse and reverse and the envelope of issue for a celluloid charge card issued by Kresge Department Store of Newark. These were used before the metal charge coins became popular. It is interesting that we have gone from celluloid, a form of plastic, to metal charge coins and now back to plastic again. PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

The summer is now history, it was a very pleasant one for me and rewarding also. I came across quite a few tokens and medals at prices I could afford at area flea markets. I stopped among other places at the Tomato Factory in Hopewell, the flea market below Lambertville and Lambertville itself, two antique shows in Westfield, the Antique Center at Red Bank and the Lahaska Pa. flea market to name a few. My luck was better than years past. I picked up some New Jersey milk bottles and caps, a few Post Cards with Civil War scenes and quite a few tokens and medals, even 5 charge coins.

The Ocean County Coin Club will again provide us with a meeting room at their annual show at the Elks Club, Clifton & Washington St. Toms River, N.J. on Sunday, October 16. The meeting time will be 1:00 P.M.

I would like to try something new for the meeting. An informal auction. All members can bring up to five items for a mini-auction. You can put a reserve on each item. It should be fun. I'll volunteer to be auctioneer. Just place your name and describe your items on a piece of paper and any reserve price. Place a reasonable reserve and you will sell it. There will be no buyers or sellers fee. Just a fun time. If it works we can make it an annual event.

The meeting will be informal without a program so please bring something to auction, sell or swap.

The Ocean County Show is the largest one day coin show in New Jersey and well worth the ride.
See you there

Best regards

Pete

EDITORS NOTES

Running short of room in this issue also, so will keep this short. Thanks to Gary Patterson for his W&H story, he did all the typeing. Next issue will have a six page listing of N.J. bank tokens from Al Zaika, if you collect bank tokens send in your classified ads now. I have what I believe is a very old Peter Ballantine beer token and will include it next issue if space permits, after that I need more articles for Jerseyana. The deadline for all ads and whatever for the next issue is November 20, 1988.

Dues time is near for 1989. If you are so inclined you can send in your dues now. They are only $6.00 per year for six issues of JERSEYANA. Some members are paid up for 1989 so if in doubt wait until a formal request is made in the next issue.

by Gary Patterson

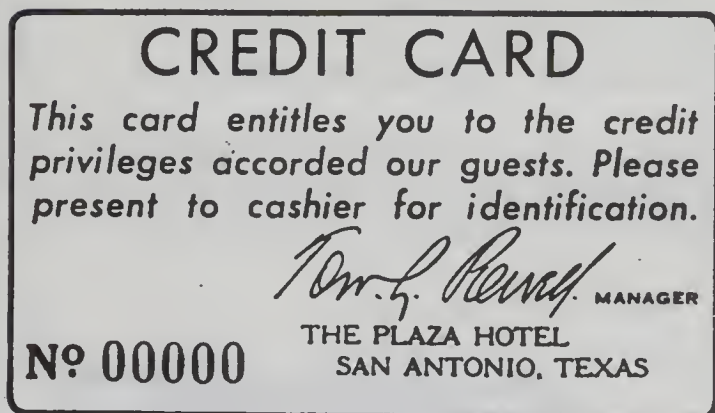

For the Credit CARD & Charge Coin collectors I hope the following list will help you in your research or let you know what is out there to be found. It is by no means complete as I only collect items made by Whitehead & Hoag. Altho some items on the list appear to be Key Tags many stores doing a charge account business used these key tags for customer identification. All items are marked as being made by W&H.

(celluloid)

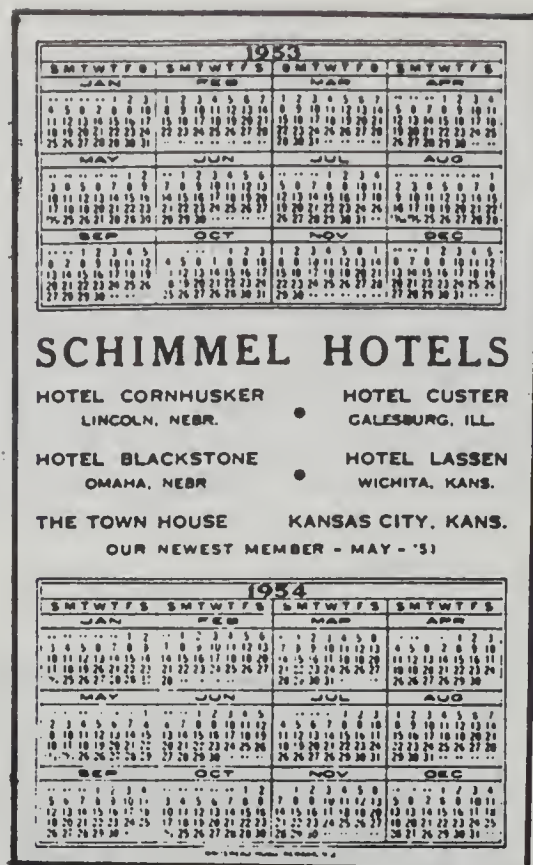

The above "SAMPLE" charge coin from Bamberger & Co. is one of my favorite - because the store now stands where Whitehead started in business with B. Clark before he teamed up with Hoag.

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

Dear fellow members;

We had a small turnout at the Ocean County Coin Club show in October, but, it was more than made up in discussions and planning ideas.

Bill Aquilino suggested we try a mail bid auction. We're going to give it a try. Al Zaika has once again volunteered his time to be the mail bid auctioneer.

Bill also suggested that as a Society we start to catalog N.J. tokens by towns alphabetically. We will need more planning but it is about time we started. With enough help from our members we should get this project accomplished in a few years. We will need and be asking you for your help. We hope to have it published when we have completed this project.

We also had discussions on collecting Trenton tokens and medals, L.Bamberger material and the possibility of going from 6 issues of Jerseyana to 4 issues per year because of a shortage of articles. Herb Weiss said he'd like to try to keep it at 6 issues a while longer. Let's give our editor a hand by sending in more articles and classified ads.

Our thanks to Archie Black and the Ocean County Coin Club for the meeting room, I hope more people will come to the meeting next year. It is still the best one day coin show in New Jersey.

Regards,
Pete

EDITORS NOTES

In this issue is a listing of New Jersey Bank Tokens by Al Zaika, the original listing was printed in the Bank Token Society newsletter they have disbanded, in 1980. We are reprinting it here for our new members, because of its size I had to break it up and the new addendum will be printed in our next issue.

As Pete mentions above we will start a mail bid with the next issue more elsewhere in this issue. We are also starting a listing of N. Trade tokens in the next issue. We will start with A and print something every issue, if you collect Zarepath N.J. it will take a while but we will get to you. More on this in the next issue. Pete Hogaboom has written to the New Jersey Historical Society for a money grant to publish a New Jersey Token Book. We will keep you advised on this. I have enough material for several issues but would appreciate any articles you can contribute, if you will write something we will print it.

1989 DUES

It is time for your 1989 dues to be paid. They are only $6.00 for six issues of JERSEYANA, I have enclosed a self addressed envelope for members to pay their dues. Make your $6.00 check payable to "New Jersey Exonumia Society" and mail it to P.O.Box 363, Cranford, N.J. 07016. If you don't receive an envelope don't send any money, your dues are paid.

JERSEYANA AUCTIONS

Acting upon a suggestion made at the Ocean County meeting, N.J.E.S. will sponsor a mail bid auction on a regular basis, following this announcement in JERSEYANA. Our members are encouraged to consign tokens, medals and related items, with each consignment limited to no more than ten lots. New Jersey material would be preferred, but other issues are acceptable. A minimum bid of $2.00 per lot has been established, but this does not restrict consignors from placing higher bids on their items. Keeping this in mind, please limit your consignments to less common material, as any common items will be consolidated into one lot. A 15% commission will be charged to each lot that is sold and 25¢ will levied against each unsold lot. All revenue from these sales will revert to the N.J.E.S treasury.

Al Zaika has volunteered to manage the auctions, so all consignments, inquiries and future bids should be sent to Al at: P.O.BOX 65, BELLMAWR, N.J. 08031-0065. If you have any questions be sure to include a stamped envelope for Al to answer you.
